SUMMARY

Music and culture marketing strategist and founder of Revive Creative, with experience spanning music production, artist relations, digital distribution and integrated campaigns. My campaign work dates back to 2019. I connect cultural insight, content and partnerships to take campaigns from concept to execution. I grew a new Instagram channel to over 2 million views in a single 30-day period without paid advertising, led Lavi's release campaign integrating a press event, media outreach and Spotify ads, and planned 24 episodes of HHCC Season 2.
